

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT:

The Southern Oregon Historical Society is Making History!

In keeping with our 2017 theme of “Making History Together,” society members, volunteers, and community friends are offering an exciting 2017 program of events and services. These include the best in regional history scholarship (“Windows in Time” public library talks, “As It Was” Radio radio program), a well-staffed History Research Center in downtown Medford, and a full- range of family-friendly events at beautiful Hanley Farm.

Membership is the life of the Society, and we look forward to substantially increasing ours in 2017. Help us achieve this goal by inviting your friends to become members too. Joining is easy! You can sign up on-line at www.sohs.org/membership or by mail using the form on the back of this sheet. All members receive our attractive quarterly newsletter by mail, e-mail announcements of upcoming events, discounts on SOHS activities and services, and a variety of other benefits. As a spring bonus, new members who join by June 1st will also receive a copy of Dawna Curler’s beautiful coffee table book, The Art and Life of Regina Dorland Robinson.

Member support makes on-going SOHS activities possible, so join us in writing this year’s chapter of “Making History Together.”

President, SOHS Board of Trustees
