PHOTOGRAPHY

Hanley Farm is open to the public a number of times during the year for SOHS heritage and community programs. During these events, visitors are free to take photographs of the grounds, buildings and animals. Other than during these events, the Farm is closed to the public. Occasionally, professional and amateur photographers desire to use the Farm as a setting or backdrop for family portraits, or special event photographs, or to use the farm for architectural or landscape studies. For all such uses, the photographer must make an appointment for a specific date and time through SOHS and pay a modest use fee:

Professional Photographers will pay $30/hr. or $100 for a half day (4 hours). SOHS members will pay a discounted rate of $20/hr. or $65 for the half day.

Photo Artists and Amateur Photographers will pay $15/hr. or $50 for the half day. SOHS members will pay a discounted rate of $10/hr. or $30 for the half day.

Photographers should reserve a time and date at least 3 days in advance. To make a reservation, email the SOHS Office Manager at officemgr@sohs.org.

Photography inside Hanley House is not permitted without specific prior approval.

ADDITIONAL SETUP/CLEANUP TIME

Additional time for event setup and/or cleanup may be available at a rate of $25/hour subject to availability. Please contact the Office Manager for further information
