

2017 SOHS Hanley Farm Event Sponsorship Opportunities

APRIL 29 & 30: HANLEY HERITAGE PLANT SALE: This is a two day event that attracts over 650 people. Heritage plants grown at Hanley Farm are sold.

MAY 18 & 19: CHILDREN'S HERITAGE FAIR: Nearly 700 Fourth Grade students, teachers and chaperones culminate their study of Oregon History with hands-on activities involving making bread, doing laundry, packing for the Oregon Trail, Native American skills, making pinch pots and more.

MAY 20: CHILDREN'S HERITAGE FAIR Public Day: This event attracts over 600 people with activities such as: Hands-on Homesteading Crafts; Interactive Demonstrations; Garden Tours; Old-Fashioned Kitchen Skills & much more!

JULY 8 & 9: LIVING HISTORY DAYS: This event is expected to draw 500 people. It will feature the Cascade Civil War Society, crafts, Hanley house tours, hayrides, music, food and more.

AUG. 5: AMERICAN ROOTS MUSIC DAY: This major SOHS fundraiser is expected to bring over 500 music fans for a day featuring several groups providing a summer day of music with food & drinks and other activities.

OCT. 7 & 8: SCARECROW FESTIVAL: There will be scarecrow making, pumpkin painting, apple bobbing, Hanley house tours, hayrides, food and music along with a people's choice scarecrow contest. Nearly 900 people participated in this event last year. We hope you will enter a scarecrow in this year's contest and come out to enjoy the fun.

OCT. TBA: HAUNTED FIELD WALK: In the dark of night, a walk down scarecrow lane will find eerie mysteries and scarecrows coming alive in a story worthy of an American folktale. 750 people enjoy the Crater High School Renaissance Academy actors at their best.

NOV. 25: HOLIDAY AT HANLEY WREATH MAKING: About 250 people come out to make their Holiday Wreaths. There is also a Kids Craft Corner; Holiday Boutique; Visit with Santa; and Hot Cider & Fresh Baked Cookies.

DEC. 26 & 27: HOLIDAYS AT HANLEY OPEN HOUSE: a tour of Hanley House beautifully decorated for the Holidays. Come and explore the picturesque home of Michael & Martha Hanley, at the Annual Holiday Home Tour, an absolute must for architecture buffs and history enthusiasts alike. In keeping with the rich tradition of hospitality, we invite you and yours inside this historic home to get a unique glimpse of life from a bygone era.
